

Incident Tip Program Reward Terms and Conditions

As of 1/26/2022

1. The tip must come through the Bureau of Land Management Tip Program by phone or email and must lead to the arrest and conviction in a misdemeanor or felony crime within Red Rock Canyon National Conservation Area.
2. The determination regarding the classification of misdemeanor or felony crimes will be based on the actual charge filed against the individual(s) based on the jurisdiction in which the charges are filed. Classification of misdemeanor or felony warrants is based on the actual warrant for arrest issued by the originating agency.
3. The Friends of Red Rock Canyon Board may determine to pay a reward on specific misdemeanor crimes under unique circumstances and where the best interest of Incident Tip program may be served.
4. Rewards of up to $1,000 are paid for information leading to the arrest and conviction in misdemeanor or felony for the related crimes. The Board of Directors of the Friends of Red Rock Canyon determines the actual amount of the reward for each incident.
5. All decisions of the Friends of Red Rock Canyon Board of Directors are final.

6. A limit of one reward will be paid per incident, regardless of the number of suspects identified or informants who provide the information.
7. Rewards to informants under the age of 18 will be made to their parent or guardian.
8. In the event more than one person provides information on the same crime or incident, the Bureau of Land Management assigned team member and the Friends of Red Rock Canyon Board of Directors will make the determination as to which individual is entitled to the Incident Tip reward, based on who provided the information first and/or based on the relative importance of the informants' information.
9. The reward may be divided among two or more callers / emailers at the discretion of the Board.
10. The Friends of Red Rock Canyon will be under no obligation to pay any reward if it is shown that the identity and/or location of the suspect(s) was known to the public, the news media or law enforcement prior to the receipt of the information to the Friends of Red Rock Canyon.
11. Monies awarded by the Board and not called for or collected by the caller within 90 days will be placed back in the reward fund and used for future rewards.
